

CALWEST EDUCATORS LEE MILLER SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION FORM

The CalWest Educators Lee Miller Scholarship Program is an annual award presented in memory and honor of CalWest Founder Lee Miller, established by her family and by friends at CalWest Educators Placement. Lee was passionate about mentoring emerging leaders and supporting teachers. She was especially interested in expanding professional development experiences for teachers and in exploring opportunities for school leaders – from entry level through senior leadership positions. The CalWest Educators Lee Miller Scholarship will be awarded annually to educators in NCGS member schools in the form of a scholarship grant to attend the annual NCGS conference. This year, recipients will receive a scholarship grant to attend the NCGS Conference, Education Innovation: Building Cultures of Creativity, June 25-27, 2017 in Washington, DC. The CalWest Educators Lee Miller Scholarship covers the registration fees for the NCGS Conference. Recipients are responsible for travel, accommodations, and any other expenses.

Completed application forms should be sent to ncgs@ncgs.org with the subject line "CALWEST SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION." Submissions must be received by 5:00 p.m. EST on March 24, 2017. Only email submissions will be accepted. Recipients will be notified in early March.
