Who I am, the beliefs and values that anchor me:
- My capacity for action and influence, the skills and attributes that enable me to be productive and adaptable

Agency, the ability to imagine possibilities and actively determine my future
Our graduates 2020+

Testimonials from our girls:

The Senior Years Program has been a fantastic opportunity for me to take responsibility for my learning as I feel it is preparing me for the future. So far the program has been a success for me as it is a great privilege to be allowed the independence of working at my own pace.

I believe that the Senior Years Program really enhances our abilities, both technologically and academically, thus allowing us to be the female leaders of the future.
Our graduates 2020+

Testimonials from our teachers:

I am continually amazed by the poise and determination of these girls. They have been bestowed with a huge amount of agency and they are taking it in their stride and running with it.

Testimonials from our teachers:

I am struck by the fact that the Senior Years Program is asking of me (as an Instructional Designer and also as a teacher) exactly what it is asking of the girls: creative and critical thinking, problem solving skills, the ability to collaborate with others in meaningful ways and for a higher purpose, big picture thinking, imagination, independence and initiative, time management skills, flexibility, adaptability, courage and resilience.
