Job Summary

Linden Hall is looking for a personable, collaborative full-time history instructor with an interest in working in an all-girls' school. We welcome engaging, high-energy applicants to work with students in grades 6-12, including students with emerging English language skills, at the college preparatory through Advanced Placement® level. Top candidates will have experience teaching history in an independent school environment. They will also possess a passion for nurturing skills in students with a range of backgrounds and ability levels. We expect all candidates will have an understanding of the developmental needs of early-adolescent girls.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in history or related social science required; Master's degree in history or education field preferred
- Prior experience with independent schools preferred
- Strong interpersonal skills; excellent communication skills
- Ability to establish and maintain effective working relationships with students, staff, and parents

Essential Duties: History Teacher

- Teach 5 academic classes during the school day in history, including 8th grade Civics and Upper School classes to be determined, through the Advanced Placement® level
- Sponsor or co-sponsor extracurricular activities for middle school or high school students, including Model United Nations club
- Collaborate with department members and grade-level team faculty

Additional Duties

- Perform boarding responsibilities as needed, periodically supervising students on weekends; regularly advise a small group of students
- Engage in the life of the school by attending artistic, cultural, and athletic student events
- Improve practice through participation in professional development programs, curriculum development, etc.
- Perform any other related duties as assigned by the Head of School or other appropriate administrator

Interested candidates should submit a cover letter, resume, and Statement of Philosophy to Beth Teske, Assistant Head of School for Academics, at eteske@lindenhall.org with "History Teacher" in the subject line.
