

JOB POSTING: NURSE PRACTITIONER

Dana Hall School seeks candidates for the position of Nurse Practitioner. The individual in this position will be accountable for:

- Delivering health care with a focus on prevention and education, including the management of medical issues involving episodic, chronic and preventive care
- Assessing and managing students including diagnostic and therapeutic interventions
- Providing pediatric health care maintenance
- Prescribing and administering medications
- Ordering and interpreting results of laboratory and diagnostic tests
- Reviewing health forms at the beginning of the school year
- Collaborating with mental health staff related to students with social or emotional difficulties
- Collaborating with the school physician
- Being available to students, families, faculty and staff as a resource in matters pertaining to health during and beyond the school day
- Providing telephone triage in a rotation of after-hours and weekend coverage, including some holidays

Successful candidates must have: a current license to practice as a CPNP-PC in the state of Massachusetts; completed an accredited educational program for pediatric nurse practitioners; current AHA Basic Life Support Certification; a minimum of one-year experience in an ambulatory or school setting.

Candidates must possess; excellent social, written and oral communication skills; strong crisis management skills; an ability to multi-task and consistently meet deadlines; the flexibility to manage multiple and, at times, competing priorities; excellent interpersonal skills with the ability to genuinely connect with students ages 9-18 and their parents/guardians; the ability to address the developmental needs of female adolescents and young woman in an informed, compassionate manner; and the ability to be team oriented and collaborate with a variety of disciplines within the school and medical communities.

This is a ten-month, full-time position starting on August 23, 2019 and reporting to the Director of Health Services.

Dana Hall seeks candidates who will contribute to and are committed to diversity and multicultural educational practices.
