Belong. Believe. Become.

Math Position Full-time, 10-month Position

St. Margaret's School is conducting a search for an energetic and innovative faculty member to teach math. This position will teach a variety of math offerings and will be expected to engage fully in school life. This is a full-time, 10-month benefited faculty position that may include on-campus housing. Preference will be given to the individual who can serve as a hall adult, living on-campus with girls in one of the residence halls.

Qualities of a successful candidate will include:

- Aptitude for teaching upper level math
- Enthusiasm for creative teaching, professional growth, and applying technology
- Belief in the transformative power of a girls' school
- A master's degree or Virginia teaching certification is preferred
- Ability and enthusiasm for coaching welcome

Founded in 1921, St. Margaret's School is an Episcopal boarding and day school with 120 girls in grades 8–12 and postgraduate. The student body is 30% international, representing 14 countries. Located on the banks of the Rappahannock River in Tappahannock, Virginia, an hour northeast of Richmond and two hours from the Washington DC metro area, St. Margaret's offers the intimacy of a small school with impressive academic and co-curricular offerings.

St. Margaret's is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation or national origin in the administration of its hiring practices.
