

HEADWAYS for College Counselors: Guiding Girls Through the College Process 2019-2020 Schedule and Topics

HEADWAYS for College Counselors will be facilitated by Jenny Byers, Director of College Counseling, Harpeth Hall. Dates and times for the five discussions will be announced in mid-August.

- ❖ Designing a Developmentally Appropriate College Counseling Program for Girls
Topics to consider: skill building, interest inventory and strengths assessment, programming for 9th and 10th, recommended testing timeline
- ❖ Combating College Admissions Anxiety
Topics to consider: fit versus prestige, educating your constituents, creating a balanced college list, the cost of college, fear of failure, perfectionism, test anxiety
- ❖ How Do You Define Success?
Topics to consider: process versus outcomes, which metrics matter to your school, what outcomes do you track and promote
- ❖ Preparing Girls for College and Beyond
Topics to consider: financial literacy, mental health and well-being, leave of absences, healthy relationships, lifelong learning
- ❖ Innovation and the Impact on College Admissions
Topics to consider: Mastery Transcript, Turning the Tide, Making Care Common, Independent Curriculum Group, Social Emotional Learning, Project-Based Learning