Global Action Research Collaborative on Girls’ Education
Permission and Signatures

Thank you for your interest in submitting an application to participate in the Global Action Research Collaborative on Girls’ Education. Our vision is to engage girls’ school educators from around the world in a collaborative, disciplined, and sustained action research program that will build both a network of girls’ school educators and a database of valuable and relevant research on girls’ education.

Before signing, please visit the Global Action Research Collaborative on Girls’ Education section of the NCGS website and read the Information for Applicants section which explains in more detail the expectations of participants.

The deadline for completed applications is October 9, 2020.

Acceptance and declination notifications will be sent via email during the week of November 2, 2020.

SIGNATURES

We understand the expectations of the Global Action Research Collaborative on Girls’ Education and agree to fully participate in the program including the potential travel expenses.

____________________________________  _______________________
Global Action Research Fellow Applicant          Date

____________________________________  _______________________
Head/Principal of School                  Date

Thank you for submitting your application to participate in the Global Action Research Collaborative on Girls’ Education.

Once your application has been received, you will be invited to a dedicated Dropbox folder to which you will upload your video and this permission and signature form.

Please do not hesitate to contact Natalie Demers, Director of Research Initiatives and Programs, at ndemers@ncgs.org, if you have any questions about the application process or about the program.