Ursuline Academy Theology Teacher

Ursuline Academy is a Catholic, independent, college preparatory school for young women in grades 7-12, located in Dedham, MA. We are seeking applications for a full-time, dynamic Theology teacher for the 2021-2022 academic year. The successful candidate will be a practicing Catholic and passionate educator who is committed to the Ursuline mission and displays a sensitivity to and understanding of female adolescents. The ideal candidate will have experience teaching in both the high school and middle school Theology classroom, have a firm understanding of adolescent spirituality and, through attitude and deed, model behavior that will draw students to the Catholic faith.

Flexibility, a collaborative and professional spirit, excellent communication skills and commitment to the school’s mission are essential. The ideal candidate will serve in our active retreat program, share in school-sponsored service projects with students, contribute as a full community member by participating constructively in all faculty discussions, meetings and committees, and be interested in professional and curriculum development.

Minimum Qualifications:
- Bachelor’s Degree, Master’s Degree Preferred
- Three (3) years teaching experience at the secondary level

Required Skills and Experiences:
- Approachability and the ability to connect well with adolescents
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills, including a sense of humor
- Experience with diverse student populations
- Ability to communicate effectively in both written and oral form
- Availability for evening and weekend events including school vacation and summer student service trips

Please submit a resume, statement of interest and the names of three references to Regina MacLeod rmacleod@ursulineacademy.net. Please indicate the position you are applying for in the subject line of the email.
