Position Available: Part-Time Art Teacher, grades 5-12
Long-term Substitute, August through January

Forest Ridge School of the Sacred Heart provides a diverse and rigorous college preparatory environment that inspires young women to become confident, compassionate leaders. As a member of a global network of more than 150 schools, we educate to the core of our 200-year tradition through the Sacred Heart Goals and Criteria: a personal and active faith in God, a deep respect for intellectual values, a social awareness that impels one to action, the building of community as a Christian value, and personal growth in an atmosphere of wise freedom.

Forest Ridge School of the Sacred Heart welcomes students, adults and families into a learning environment which respects and strives for diversity, openness, understanding and acceptance of all human beings.

Part-time Position: At this time, the position is planned for the first semester, from August 23 through January 2022. It is possible that the position will be extended. The teaching responsibilities are a .6 FTE. The position could increase to .8 FTE with the addition of advisory, depending on the interests and experience of the successful candidate.

Responsibilities: During the first semester, you will teach three classes of art electives in middle school and one class of Drawing and Painting I in high school. You will work collaboratively with another art teacher, as well as with the department chair and Director for Teaching and Learning. Using your knowledge of best practices in art instruction and assessment, you will plan appropriate instruction and provide feedback to students that helps them grow their skills and confidence. At this time, the position would be for the first semester, from August 23 through January 2022. It is possible that the position will be extended. The teaching responsibilities are a .7 FTE. The position could increase to .8 FTE with the addition of advisory; that would depend on the interests and experience of the successful candidate. You will be involved in varied aspects of the school program, and you will support the mission of the school by attending and participating in required meetings and events.

Qualifications: As an educator who holds a degree in art or art education, you are well-versed in the teaching of various visual art courses, as well as in best practices for art instruction and assessment. You understand the developmental and learning needs of adolescents from ages 11 through 18. You have knowledge of instructional resources and facility with technology, including the Microsoft Office suite. In addition, you have prior experience working effectively with adolescents. You place a high value on creating and nurturing a collaborative, supportive and enriching environment for both students and adults. All applicants to Forest Ridge should have a strong commitment to the Catholic, Sacred Heart, and single-gender identity of the school.

Salary/Benefits: Forest Ridge School of the Sacred Heart is committed to attracting and retaining outstanding employees through competitive compensation.

Application Process: Applicants should email a cover letter and resume to Teri Anderson at tanderson@forestridge.org. This position is open until filled.

Forest Ridge School of the Sacred Heart is an Equal Opportunity Employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, creed, sex, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, and any other status protected by local law. Motivated by the belief that building and nurturing relationships matter for a strong community, Forest Ridge believes that the work of inclusion and equity is everyone’s work, and is committed to cultivating systems, structures, and practices founded on these values. We strongly encourage people from underrepresented groups to apply.