Mount Alvernia High School

Mount Alvernia High School Mission Statement: As a community of learners in relationship with the Creator and steeped in Franciscan tradition, Mount Alvernia High School enlightens and shapes courageous, compassionate and articulate women who believe that life has a purpose, who are able to discern the ‘good’ and who will be an effective force for it in the world.

Position: Humanities Teacher

Mount Alvernia High School is an all-girls Catholic 7-12 high school sponsored by the Missionary Franciscan Sisters of the Immaculate Conception located in Newton, MA. The school currently has 140 students from almost 40 different communities.

We are currently looking for a Humanities teacher to join our school community. Teaching responsibilities will include teaching five classes in an area of expertise. Other responsibilities include homeroom and assigned duties.

The ideal candidate will possess most or all of these qualifications:
- 1-3 years experience teaching at the middle school or high school level
- An undergraduate degree in subject area required, Masters preferred
- Ability to create a positive class environment
- Ability to plan and deliver engaging lessons with measurable objectives
- Effective classroom management skills in order to set and maintain expectations
- Effective communication skills (especially regarding parents/guardians)
- Ability to work collaboratively with colleagues including faculty, Guidance, Admissions, and Administration
- Ability to work with diverse learners
- Experience with project based learning
- Assessment of student learning through both formative and summative measures

Candidates should be familiar with the school’s mission and philosophy and have a commitment to Catholic education and the values of the Missionary Franciscan Sisters.

Qualified candidates should submit a letter of interest and resume to employment@mountalverniah.org.
