Faculty position, History Department, Ashley Hall

As the only all-girls’ independent school in South Carolina, Ashley Hall provides a dynamic education, preparing students to become strong, confident leaders for the future generations. The School serves girls kindergarten-grade 12 (co-ed 2 years-5 years), with a small residential boarding program for grades 9-12. Since its founding in 1909, Ashley Hall has empowered young women to think critically, act ethically, and embrace challenges and adversity with confidence.

The ideal candidates will possess

- A bachelor’s degree in history and a master’s or doctoral degree in history or related field.
- A minimum of five (5) years teaching experience at the secondary level, with experience teaching AP® United States History a plus.
- A commitment to a diverse and inclusive curriculum and pedagogy to engage and honor all learners.
- A commitment to a high level of academic rigor and a global perspective to history instruction.
- A commitment to collaborative, interdisciplinary, team-oriented academic environment where history is taught in a discussion-based format with an emphasis on the study of primary source material.
- Excellent written and oral communication skills.

In addition, the following attributes are preferred skills:
- Experience teaching at an independent school.
- Training in and experience with the International Baccalaureate Diploma Programme framework.
- Experience in facilitating discussions using the Harkness™ method of instruction.
- Desire to participate in international travel as a chaperone; knowledge and proficiency in a foreign language a plus.

The successful candidates will be responsible for a minimum of five (5) sections of history possibly split between two (2) grade levels as well as other duties as assigned, including but not limited to serving as an advisor, club sponsor, or chaperone.