Title: Lower School Teacher

Reports To: Division Director of Lower School

Major Responsibilities:

Plan and implement curriculum and instruction in language arts, mathematics, science, and social studies. Collaborate with colleagues within the Lower School division and throughout the school as a whole. Designs and implements inquiry-based project learning experiences, guided by student interests. Classroom instruction includes whole group, small group, and individualized instruction.

As a lead teacher other duties include assisting at car-pool (drop off and pick up of students), lunch and recess duty. Prepare assignments for students, review and provide feedback and/or grades. Meet with parents. Professional development as it relates to curriculum development, health and safety of students, etc. All other duties as assigned by department chairperson and division director.

Ability to communicate clearly and the ability to work well with parents.

Qualifications include five or more years teaching experience (independent school experience preferred) and a Master’s degree.

In addition, the ideal candidates will

- Have experience teaching in an International Baccalaureate Primary Years Programme or have training in IB methodology.
- Experience with Units of Study in Reading, Writing, and Phonics (Teachers’ College Reading and Writing Project), Responsive Classroom, Everyday Math
- Have experience in and a commitment to differentiated learning and a strong pedagogical approach to supporting diverse learners.
- A commitment to a culturally responsive curriculum and pedagogy to engage and honor all learners and embrace diverse perspectives.