Job Posting: Interim Dean of Students

The Academy of the Holy Angels is seeking applicants for an Interim Dean of Students for the Fall semester (Aug. 15, 2022 - January 20, 2023). The Academy of the Holy Angels is a private, Catholic preparatory school for girls in grades 9-12, located in Demarest, New Jersey. The Dean of Students reports to the President and works closely with the Principal and Academic Dean to oversee the daily operations of the school. The Dean of Students is responsible for school discipline, student activities, student handbook, the attendance office and school security procedures. The Dean supervises the work of the School Nurse, Social Worker, Athletic Director and Attendance Officer. The Dean of Students is the administration liaison to the Parents Athletic Association. Master’s degree in Educational Administration or Leadership preferred. Salary commensurate with experience. Interested applicants should submit a letter of interest and resume to pbishop@holyangels.org.