The Linden School is seeking a full time French Teacher who has a passion for feminism and social justice and enjoys working with students who range in age from 4-17.

Linden's small classes mean you have time to get to know students well. And Linden students love learning, so you spend your time teaching, not focusing on classroom management. Our award-winning teachers are empowered to build innovative, experiential programs that students are excited about. We are a small, collegial faculty in the heart of Toronto, and we are building Canada's best progressive school. We're looking for creative, passionate educators who want to build an extraordinary career.

The Linden School is among a small number of girls' schools in the world that was founded on feminist principles. We are a socially progressive community where innovative best practices in girls’ education promote and strengthen voice, well-being, academic excellence, and global engagement. Driven by the values of inclusivity, diversity, and intellectual risk, staff and faculty work in a culture of respect, collaboration, and intellectual curiosity. We encourage applications from members of groups that have been historically disadvantaged and marginalized, including First Nations, Metis and Inuit peoples, Indigenous peoples of North America, racialized persons, persons with disabilities, and those that identify as women and/or LGBTQIA2S+
