JOB POSTING: PHYSICAL EDUCATION TEACHER

The Linden School is seeking a Full-Time Physical and Health Educator for middle and high school students. Linden's small classes mean you have time to get to know students well. And Linden students love learning, so you spend your time teaching, not focusing on classroom management. Our award-winning teachers are empowered to build innovative, experiential programs that students are excited about. We are a small, collegial faculty in the heart of Toronto, and we are building Canada's best progressive school. We're looking for creative, passionate educators who want to build an extraordinary career.

The Linden School is among a small number of girls’ schools in the world that was founded on feminist principles. We are a socially progressive community where innovative best practices in girls’ education promote and strengthen voice, well-being, academic excellence, and global engagement. Driven by the values of inclusivity, diversity, and intellectual risk, staff and faculty work in a culture of respect, collaboration, and intellectual curiosity.

We encourage applications from members of groups that have been historically disadvantaged and marginalized, including First Nations, Metis and Inuit peoples, Indigenous peoples of North America, racialized persons, persons with disabilities, and those that identify as women and/or LGBTQIA2S+

PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Meet the Standards of Practice for the teaching profession in Ontario.
- Plan and implement a vibrant and inclusive physical and progressive health education programme, founded on principles of healthy movement, bodily autonomy, and consent.
- Focus on cardiovascular training and strength-based exercises health classes that exceed curriculum expectations.
- Take a holistic approach towards strengthening a student’s body, mind, and soul is integral to the creation of a strong, confident, and healthy body and mind.
- Coach one after-school sport per term.
- Provide in-person instruction to support hybrid learning, with the flexibility to switch to online instruction if / when requested.
- Provide regular assessment to ensure students demonstrate proficiency for their grade level.
- Prepare report cards and conduct parent-teacher interviews.
- Develop program and classroom setup, including curriculum, materials, and equipment.
- Collaborate with Linden faculty and other educational institutions as part of program development activities.
- Work with the Admissions and Marketing team to support admission inquiries/recruitment.
- Create and maintain a warm and nurturing learning environment for all students in the program.
- Attend faculty and mentorship meetings as required.
- Work with staff, supervisors, and board committee members to establish and implement short- and long-range goals, objectives, policies, and operating procedures.
- Other duties as assigned.
QUALIFICATIONS
A member of Ontario College of Teachers or equivalent experience.

COMPENSATION & BENEFITS
- This is a 12-month contract with possibility for renewal.
- Annual salary commensurate with work experience.
- Employee Health and Dental Benefits package.

Job Type: Full-time
Salary: $50,186.32 - $95,127.92 per year

COVID-19 considerations:
All staff and students on site are required to wear a mask. We apply current policies and practices for COVID-19 according to Ministry of Education, Public Health restrictions and government mandates.

Interested candidates should send their application to violet@lindenschool.ca.